You, You Are God

Gateway Worship | Thomas Miller

Here I am, I've come to find You
Here I am, to see Your grace
To bring to You an offering
I have to ask myself one thing
How can I do anything but praise!
I praise!

You, You are God, You are Lord
You are all I'm living for
You are King of everything
I want my life to praise You!

Here I am, I've come to thank You
Here I am, a life You've changed
Because You gave Your life for me
You crucified Your Son for me
How can I do anything but praise!
I praise!

*You, You are God, You are Lord
You are all I'm living for
You are King of everything
I want my life to praise...
You, You are God, You are Lord
You are all I'm living for
You are King of everything
I want my life to praise You!
I want my life to praise You!*

Welcome | Dr. Brent McDougal

Scripture Reading (Luke 16:1-13) | Pam Neal

Jesus told his disciples: “There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. ² So he called him in and asked him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

³ “The manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m ashamed to beg— 4 I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.'

5 "So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

6 "Nine hundred gallons[a] of olive oil,' he replied.

"The manager told him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.'

7 "Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?'

"A thousand bushels[b] of wheat,' he replied.

"He told him, 'Take your bill and make it eight hundred.'

8 "The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. 9 I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

10 "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. 11 So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? 12 And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?

13 "No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

Worthy of ev'ry song we could ever sing
Worthy of all the praise we could ever bring
Worthy of ev'ry breath we could ever breathe
We live for You

Jesus the name above ev'ry other name
Jesus the only one who could ever save

Worthy of ev'ry breath we could ever breathe
We live for You
We live for You

*Holy there is no one like You
There is none beside You
Open up my eyes in wonder and show me who You are
And fill me with Your heart
And lead me in Your love to those around me*

I will build my life upon Your love
It is a firm foundation
I will put my trust in You alone
And I will not be shaken

Oh I have days I lose the fight
Try my best but just don't get it right
Where I talk a talk that I don't walk
And miss the moments right before my eyes

Somebody with a hurt that I could have helped Somebody with a hand that I could have held
When I just can't see past myself
Lord help me be

A little more like mercy

A little more like grace

A little more like kindness goodness love and faith

A little more like patience

A little more like peace

A little more like Jesus

A little less like me

Yeah there's no denying I have changed
I've been saved from who I used to be
But even at my best I must confess
I still need help to see the way You see

Oh to feed the beggar on the street
Love to be Your hands and feet
Freely give what I receive
Lord help me be

I want to put You first above all else
Love my neighbor as myself
In the moments no one sees
Lord help me be

A little more I'm living
Everything I preach
A little more like Jesus

The Church Choir

Choral music is an integral part of the First Baptist worship experience. We have opportunities for every age to sing and help lead in worship from Mrs. Judy's Three-year-old choir that starts back on Wednesday through our Golden Notes choir that will return on Thursday, September 8th. If you have a desire to sing and worship, we have a place for you!

Last week, I saw a facebook post attributed to Paul McCartney - "I love to hear a choir. I love the humanity, to see the faces of real people devoting themselves to a piece of music. I like the teamwork. It makes me feel optimistic about the human race when I see them cooperating like that."

I love that. For me, the choir is a community that intentionally engages in Christ-like acts of humility and cooperation. We work together to create beauty and art that can only happen as a group that works together in unity. Every voice is not the same, but together is stronger and more beautiful than the sum of the individuals that make it up. We lean on each other, support one another, and learn from those around us.

The Sanctuary Choir will have its annual Choir Retreat August 26 and 27, so this is a great time to join! If you see a choir member this week, please stop and thank them for their leadership.

Did you know that studies have shown that the mental health benefits of choral singing include enhanced brain function, strengthened feelings of togetherness, and the release of endorphins and oxytocin resulting in reduced stress and depression?
