Christ the Lord Is Risen Today | EASTER HYMN

Prelude | Brass Quartet

"Thine Be the Glory" from Judas Maccabaeus | G.F. Handel

Call to Worship | Sanctuary Choir with Brass and Congregation

Crown Him | Dan Forrest

Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon His throne:
Hark! How the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of love: Behold His hands and side –
Rich wounds, yet visible above, In beauty glorified;
No angel in the sky Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wond'ring eye at mysteries so bright.

Crown Him the Lord of heav'n: One with the Father known,
One with the Spirit through Him giv'n from yonder glorious throne.

To Thee be endless praise, For Thou for us hast died;
Be Thou, O Lord, through endless days Adored and magnified!

Congregational Hymn 217

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus | ODE TO JOY

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus,
His the scepter, His the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone.
Hark! the songs of peaceful Zion thunder like a mighty flood,
"Jesus, out of every nation,
has redeemed us by His blood."

Alleluia! Not as orphans are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! Christ is near us, faith believes, nor questions how;
though the cloud from sight received Him
when the forty days were o'er,
shall our hearts forget His promise,
"I am with you evermore?"

Alleluia! Bread of Heaven,
Christ on earth our food and stay;
Alleluia! here the sinful rest in You from day to day:
Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
earth's Redeemer, please for me,
where the songs of all the sinless sweep across the crystal sea.

Ordinance of Baptism | Aubree Richter, Bailee Richter, Josie Miller, Grant Lyon, Stella Lyon

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Earth and heaven join to say, Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, ye heavens, and earth, reply, Alleluia!

Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia!
Death in vain forbids Him rise, Alleluia!
Christ hath opened Paradise, Alleluia!

Lives again our glorious King, Alleluia!
Where, O Death, is now thy sting? Alleluia!
Dying once He all doth save, Alleluia!
Where's thy victory, O grave? Alleluia!

Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head, Alleluia!
Made like Him, like Him we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!

Scripture Reading (John 20:1-10) | Pam Neal

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. ² So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!" ³ So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. ⁴ Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵ He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. ⁶ Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, ⁷ as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus' head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. ⁸ Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. ⁹ (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) ¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to where they were staying.

Alleluia, Christ Is Alive! | Joel Raney

Why do you seek the living among the dead?
The stone has been rolled away as the angel said.
Why are you weeping, when Christ,
His promise keeping, has opened heaven's door?

He's alive. He has risen.

The tomb is empty.

He's alive. He has risen, to reign forevermore

He is alive!

Sing "Alleluiah, Christ is risen."
Sing a hymn of praise to God on high.
The power of sin has been overcome,
The ransom paid by the holy Son.

Blameless, forgiven,
the dead are raised to life!
Praise to the Lord of earth and heaven.
Christ arose and opened paradise.

On this day of resurrection,
join the jubilant celebration.
Alleluia, Christ is alive!
Alleluia, hearts to heaven and voices raise.

God a joyful hymn, a hymn of gladness
Sing to God a hymn, a hymn of praise!
Sing "Alleluiah, Christ is risen."
Sing a hymn of praise to God on high.
Now love's redeeming work is done.

He fought the fight, now the battle's won.
Blessed redeemer, The King of love and light!
Praise to the Lord of earth and heaven.
Christ arose and opened paradise.

From the grave He rose victorious.
Praises ring from the heavenly chorus,
"Alleluia, Christ is alive Christ is Alive."
Sing "Alleluiah, Christ is risen."

SERMONNOTES

Well, Surprise, Surprise
John 20:1-10
Pastor Brent McDougal

For the last few weeks our theme has been Passionate Faith. Today's message is all about coming back to life again. Christ was raised from the dead, and you can be raised to life, too!

But to get to that truth, we must also recognize that it was a complete surprise when Jesus rose from the dead. No one expected it.

"Pilate was surprised to hear that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him if Jesus had already died. When he learned from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph. So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where he was laid" (Mark 15:44-47, NIV).

The way Mark tells it is significant. He's "certifying" that Jesus was really dead.

Our problem in 2022 is deadness. There is a sickness unto death that pervades our culture, and it's evident everywhere.

We need to become re-enchanted again by the surprise of the resurrection. We need to be shaken out of our deadness and brought back to life.

So here are three surprising things that happened on that first Easter morning.

The first surprising shift: From darkness to

"Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance" (John 20:1, NIV).

The second surprising shift: From doubt to

"She came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!' So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb... They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead" (John 20:2-3, 9, NIV).

"I passed on to you what I received, which is of the greatest importance: that Christ died for our sins, as written in the Scriptures; that he was buried and that he was raised to life three days later, as written in the Scriptures; that he appeared to Peter and then to all twelve apostles. Then he appeared to more than five hundred of his followers at once, most of whom are still alive, although some have died. Then he appeared to James, and afterward to all the apostles" (1 Corinthians 15:3-8, NIV).

So what is the gospel?

Jesus died for our sins (15:3).

Jesus was buried (15:4)

Jesus was raised to life three days later (15:4)

The third surprising shift: From death to

"Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: 'I have seen the Lord!'" (John 20:18a, NIV).

"Whoever is a believer in Christ is a new creation. The old way of living has disappeared. A new way of living has come into existence" (2 Corinthians 5:17, GWT).

How is God speaking to you today? What is your response?

SPOTLIGHT ON

A Culture of Baptism

There's nothing like the celebration that comes when someone gives their life to Christ, and there's no more joyous moment in the life of the church than when someone is baptized! We take part in the joy of heaven when someone turns to the Lord (see Luke 15:7).

Baptism is an essential next step when someone commits to following Jesus. While we are not "saved" by being baptized, the Bible teaches that a public profession of faith should follow someone's private and personal decision to accept Christ as Savior.

When Peter was asked "What should we do?" in the book of Acts by those who heard the gospel, he said, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38, NIV).

Today we're celebrating five baptisms as part of our Easter celebration. We're also working in 2022 to foster more of a "culture of baptism." Here are a few steps we're taking in that direction:

1. Mentioning the value, purpose, and benefits of baptism more regularly in sermons and consistently emphasizing baptism as the next step when someone commits their life to Jesus.
2. Creating t-shirts for baptismal candidates.
3. Videotaping some testimonies of people being baptized to post online or use during worship.
4. Baptizing on special days like Easter, Mother's Day, and during the Christmas season.
5. Improving the baptismal pool and surrounding area to make it beautiful and inviting.
6. Holding periodic outdoor baptisms.
7. Preceding or following each time of baptism with a great chorus or hymn about the power of God to change someone's life.

These are just some of the steps we're taking. Pray today that God will bring more and more people to enter the waters of baptism as they give their lives to Christ. Thank God for the transforming power of the resurrection!

SERMONNOTES

Well, Surprise, Surprise
John 20:1-10
Pastor Brent McDougal

For the last few weeks our theme has been Passionate Faith. Today's message is all about coming back to life again. Christ was raised from the dead, and you can be raised to life, too!

But to get to that truth, we must also recognize that it was a complete surprise when Jesus rose from the dead. No one expected it.

"Pilate was surprised to hear that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him if Jesus had already died. When he learned from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph. So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where he was laid" (Mark 15:44-47, NIV).

The way Mark tells it is significant. He's "certifying" that Jesus was really dead.

Our problem in 2022 is deadness. There is a sickness unto death that pervades our culture, and it's evident everywhere.

We need to become re-enchanted again by the surprise of the resurrection. We need to be shaken out of our deadness and brought back to life.

So here are three surprising things that happened on that first Easter morning.

The first surprising shift: From darkness to

"Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance" (John 20:1, NIV).

The second surprising shift: From doubt to

"She came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!' So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb... They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead" (John 20:2-3, 9, NIV).

"I passed on to you what I received, which is of the greatest importance: that Christ died for our sins, as written in the Scriptures; that he was buried and that he was raised to life three days later, as written in the Scriptures; that he appeared to Peter and then to all twelve apostles. Then he appeared to more than five hundred of his followers at once, most of whom are still alive, although some have died. Then he appeared to James, and afterward to all the apostles" (1 Corinthians 15:3-8, NIV).

So what is the gospel?

Jesus died for our sins (15:3).

Jesus was buried (15:4)

Jesus was raised to life three days later (15:4)

The third surprising shift: From death to

"Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: 'I have seen the Lord!'" (John 20:18a, NIV).

"Whoever is a believer in Christ is a new creation. The old way of living has disappeared. A new way of living has come into existence" (2 Corinthians 5:17, GWT).

How is God speaking to you today? What is your response?

There's nothing like the celebration that comes when someone gives their life to Christ, and there's no more joyous moment in the life of the church than when someone is baptized! We take part in the joy of heaven when someone turns to the Lord (see Luke 15:7).

Baptism is an essential next step when someone commits to following Jesus. While we are not "saved" by being baptized, the Bible teaches that a public profession of faith should follow someone's private and personal decision to accept Christ as Savior.

When Peter was asked "What should we do?" in the book of Acts by those who heard the gospel, he said, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38, NIV).

Today we're celebrating five baptisms as part of our Easter celebration. We're also working in 2022 to foster more of a "culture of baptism." Here are a few steps we're taking in that direction:

1. Mentioning the value, purpose, and benefits of baptism more regularly in sermons and consistently emphasizing baptism as the next step when someone commits their life to Jesus.
2. Creating t-shirts for baptismal candidates.
3. Videotaping some testimonies of people being baptized to post online or use during worship.
4. Baptizing on special days like Easter, Mother's Day, and during the Christmas season.
5. Improving the baptismal pool and surrounding area to make it beautiful and inviting.
6. Holding periodic outdoor baptisms.
7. Preceding or following each time of baptism with a great chorus or hymn about the power of God to change someone's life.

These are just some of the steps we're taking. Pray today that God will bring more and more people to enter the waters of baptism as they give their lives to Christ. Thank God for the transforming power of the resurrection!
