Welcome to worship at First Baptist. We are so glad that you have joined us today. From the heart of downtown Knoxville, we are touching lives around the world, sharing the ministry and life of Jesus Christ. If you need further information about our church, or desire a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, our ministers will be available following the service at each exit.

Please prepare for worship by:

- Silencing cell phones, pagers and PDAs.
- Encouraging children five years old and older to worship using the printed supplements available from ushers.
- Taking advantage of our Preschool Extended Session designed specifically for children age 3 and under. Pagers are provided to communicate with parents in case of emergency. Children age 4 years - 1st grade may attend Passage, our children's worship experience, after the children's sermon, or remain with their parents in the service.
- Noting that restrooms are located directly behind the choir loft.

Becoming a Member

You are welcome and encouraged to come to the front of the church to meet with a minister during the Hymn of Response to request baptism or to join the church. If you are not ready to do this, please complete the information in the tear-off portion of this worship folder and place it in the offering plate and a minister will contact you this week. Or, you may simply call the church office to request an appointment with any minister.

Continue the Experience

Check your local television provider's guide for information about the rebroadcast of today's worship service. The worship service is available on DVD and can be obtained by calling the church office. The message for today's worship service will also be available later this week online at www.fbcknox.org.

Christmas Brunch

Saturday, December 13

Our annual Christmas Brunch is another opportunity for us to invite those who are experiencing homelessness and poverty into our church. We will share a good breakfast, hear local choirs sing Christmas music, pose for a family portrait, and receive gifts donated by the church and local community. We need your help to bring in donations of blankets, children's sleeping bags, new 8x10 picture frames, and hygiene bags. This year in the boxes located at the elevators, you will find Ziploc bags with lists in them. Please pick up as many bags as you can fill and bring back, packed with hygiene items. Items may be placed in the boxes in the Welcome Center and by the elevators. If you choose to give a monetary donation, please note in the memo line: "Christmas Brunch." Thank You!

Save the Date! Christmas Card to the City

Sunday afternoon, December 7

Join us in worship December 7 as our Sanctuary Choir offers a morning of Christmas music and worship, then stay for the afternoon as our church shares an afternoon of music for our neighbors in Market Square. Participation in this event is open to all. For more information or to sign up, please email Steve Foster at stevf_patif@yahoo.com.

Reading of Psalm 111

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

² Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who delight in them.

³ Full of honor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴ He has gained renown by his wonderful deeds; the Lord is gracious and merciful.

⁵ He provides food for those who fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.

⁶ He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.

⁷ The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy.

⁸ They are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

⁹ He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name.

¹⁰ The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever.

Morning Scripture (Romans 12:3-8)

Joy Claybrook

³ For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. ⁴ For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, ⁵ so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. ⁶ We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; ⁷ if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; ⁸ if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.

Many Gifts, One Spirit
by Allen Pote

Many gifts, one spirit
Many songs, one voice
Many reasons, one promise, many questions, one choice.
O God, we pray for unity, give guidance from above.
In our differences unite us in the circle of Your love.
O God, remind us we are not alone.
Though we move on different pathways,
We are walking to Your throne.
Help us learn to love each other, show us ways to understand
We are members of one family, growing strong by joining hands.
O God, remind us we are not alone.
Though we move on different pathways,
We are walking to Your throne.
Take our many ways of working, blend the colors of each soul
Into the beauty of a rainbow, Give us life, Lord, make us whole.

The Life of the Church

Brian Daniel Reception

Sunday, November 2, following the 11:00 am Service

Last Sunday, Tom shared that Brian Daniel submitted his resignation to take a new position with a funeral home in Washington, D.C. While we rejoice in the news of this great opportunity, we are saddened by his departure. Please join us as we celebrate his time at First Baptist at a reception in his honor on his last day with us, November 2nd, following the 11:00 AM service in the Blue Room. Thank you for your season of service among us, Brian. Well done!

Safety and Security

As we continue to improve the safety and security of our facilities, we are reminded that we need to provide a safe and secure environment for the children who meet on the first and second floors in the Ward Education Building. Beginning November 2nd, we will return to a previous practice of locking the stairwell doors to the first and second floors of the Ward Education Building, and they will remain locked at all times. You can access those areas through the entrances adjacent to the elevators on each floor. Thank you for helping keep our children safe.

Surviving the Holidays

Sunday, November 2, 3:30 pm

It is hard to believe, but the holidays are fast approaching. As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving, Christmas, and the New Year, it is sometimes a difficult season for those who have lost loved ones. Instead of looking forward to the holidays, you may be dreading them. There is help. On Sunday, November 2, at 3:30 pm, we will offer Surviving the Holidays with practical ways to help you through those difficult days. There will be video, discussion, and everyone will receive a 30-day devotional to take home with you to use during the holidays. No matter how long since you have suffered a personal loss, Surviving the Holidays can help you. To sign up, contact Pam at pneal@fbcknox.org or call the church.

Bridges Out of Poverty Weekend Workshop

November 6, 7, & 8: Thurs & Fri, 6:00-8:00 pm, and Sat, 9:00 am-3:00 pm, in the Hill St. Training Room

When you work with someone in need, do you wonder why he or she makes certain choices? Do you wish they would have faster success? Do you give them “the look” when they just don’t seem to get it? If so, this training is for you. The workshop, usually $30 plus the cost of the book, is now just $5 in 2014, due to a generous grant. Registration required: contact Joy Claybrook jclaybrook@fbcknox.org or Gina Whitmore at Compassion Coalition 251-1591 x2 or gina@compassioncoalition.org.

Sticky Faith for Parents SCHEDULE CHANGE!

At First Baptist we believe family is the primary focus of faith formation; our desire is to come alongside parents and families as they raise their children to be all God is calling them to become. To that end, we are offering an opportunity for parents in our congregation to come alongside one another to learn and share together. For five sessions through personal, real-world experiences of research and sharing, The Sticky Faith Parent Curriculum presents powerful strategies and practical ideas, enabling you to impart a deep lasting faith in your children. The group will meet five Sunday afternoons from 4-6 pm (November 9, November 23, November 30, December 7, and December 14). Sign up to participate in the Welcome Center, Youth Suite, Children’s floor, or Preschool floor, or by emailing Kim Pieratt (kpieratt@fbcknox.org). There is no cost to participate.

Save the Date! Mary’s Gift

Friday evening, November 14, Trentham Hall

The Children’s Ministry will sponsor an evening with Mary Costa (the voice of Disney’s Sleeping Beauty) for FBC children and their families. Watch for more details in next week’s LOC!

Christmas Caroling

Our church has been invited to go Christmas Caroling in Downtown Knoxville on Friday, November 28th. It is the kick-off of the Christmas Season on Market Square. The City of Knoxville Christmas Tree will be officially lit at 6:15 pm. Immediately following we will walk the streets of Downtown singing Christmas songs; several of the main streets will be closed for the festivities. There will be lots to do including children’s activities throughout the night. All are welcome to join us. Please meet at the church at 6pm, and we will head to Market Square to sing and spread Christmas cheer. Please let Pam know at pneal@fbcknox.org if you would like to participate. This is a great opportunity for our church. Come join the fun!
